

WITNESSED IN LOSS OF SLURRED MEMORY

one or more witnesses

Witnessing aspects of the environment, the inhabitants, the situation as recordings of what already has been— one aspect at a time— from one or more positions, locations— stationary and/or mobile— one after another, in close succession, with long stretches of time in between or otherwise.